Victor O. Schinnerer & Company Celebrate National Architecture Week

Chevy Chase, MD – Victor O. Schinnerer & Company announces its participation in National Architecture Week, April 9-14. National Architecture Week serves to engage the public in discussions about the role of architects and architecture in creating a better world.

Schinnerer will mark the occasion by screening Sketches of Frank Gehry, a documentary by Sydney Pollack, which provides a glimpse into the mind of a brilliant architect. A speaking engagement is also scheduled—Al Rubeling of the insured firm Rubeling & Associates will speak to underwriters.

Both national and local chapters of the AIA have scheduled a variety of events to celebrate National Architecture Week and the AIA's 150th Anniversary. These include the opening of the AIA New York Design Awards exhibition, the AIA National Presidential and Mayor Proclamation Ceremony, AIA Louisiana's Celebrating Architecture Symposium and AIA Gainesville's Gold Tournament.

Since 1857, the AIA has represented the professional interests of America's architects. As AIA members, over 80,000 licensed architects, emerging professionals, and allied partners express their commitment to excellence in design and livability in our nation's buildings and communities. Members adhere to a code of ethics and professional conduct that assures the client, the public, and colleagues of an AIA-member architect's dedication to the highest standards in professional practice.
