Schinnerer to Conduct Claims Study for Construction Industry

Chevy Chase, MD—Victor O. Schinnerer and Company has contracted with an outside research firm to poll policyholders regarding their recent claims experience.

The telephone survey will measure policyholder satisfaction with their claims service, including their CNA claims representative and appointed attorney. Upon completion, a report will be issued on the findings. Media contacts interested in a copy of the results should contact Mary Jefferson at the information above.

This survey will be the first Schinnerer has conducted since 1999.
