Schinnerer Announces Launch of The Consultants Guide

Chevy Chase, MD – Victor O. Schinnerer & Company, Inc. announces the launch of The Consultants Guide—a newsletter for business consultants in management, marketing, human resources and public relations as well as market research and staffing firms. The newsletter was developed to provide education regarding potential exposures and insight into the benefits associated with professional liability.

The first issue, Protecting Your Business, explains that most consultants purchase professional liability to cover potential business mistakes. However, they don't always realize it provides additional benefits such as contract reviews, access to expert legal advice and defense costs.

Read The Consultants Guide by going to: www.PlanetSpecialtyOne.com and selecting Risk Management from the right hand navigation bar.

Questions about the SpecialtyOne program for business consultants can be directed to John Ajello, 301-951-9755 or by email at John.L.Ajello@Schinnerer.com.
