Victor O. Schinnerer & Company Celebrate National Engineers Week

Chevy Chase, MD – Victor O. Schinnerer & Company announces its participation in National Engineers Week from February 18-24. As part of the celebration, new NSPE President-elect, Bernard R. Berson, PE, LS, F.NSPE, will be briefing Schinnerer underwriters and claims experts and industry guests regarding developments in the engineering profession. Several of Mr. Berson's articles will be discussed at the session. These include Litigation and the Design Professional, the Pitfalls of Practice and the Selection of the Design Professional as an Expert. He will also discuss the role professional engineers play in protecting the public as expert witnesses in the legal system.

The National Society of Professional Engineers (NSPE) founded National Engineers Week in 1951 to increase awareness and stimulate interest in engineering and technology careers. It promotes math, science and engineers' contributions to society. Some of the week's events will include the introduction of a PBS program—Design Squad, a mentor program—Introduce a Girl to Engineering Day and New Faces of Engineering—a program highlighting young engineers' contributions. For complete information on the week's events, go to: www.eweek.org.

The National Society of Professional Engineers (NSPE) is the recognized voice and advocate of licensed Professional Engineers. Founded in 1934, NSPE strengthens the engineering profession by promoting engineering licensure and ethics, enhancing the engineer image, advocating and protecting PEs' legal rights at the national and state levels, publishing news of the profession, providing continuing education opportunities, and much more. NSPE serves some 50,000 members and the public through 53 state and territorial societies and more than 500 chapters. Learn more at: www.nspe.org.
