

5 Compelling Reasons to Insure Your Construction Business

Risk management services at no additional charge

- A library of risk management brochures, newsletters and more at your fingertips: www.PlanetRiskManagement.com
- Access to 50 years of benchmarking data and claims studies. Measure yourself against your peers and identify potential problems specific to your industry.
- Online education is included in your insurance package at no additional charge. The information provided through VEP could prevent your company from making costly mistakes, could possibly reduce premiums and/or minimize claims costs.

Customer service

- We pioneered construction consultants' coverage. With over 15 years of experience, we understand the exposures your business faces.
- Our customer service is unmatched. One example: if your company requires mid-term add-ons, increases in coverages or other changes to your policy, we can usually honor these within 24 hours of the request, so you don't go unprotected.

Extensive claims experience

- With more than 25 offices nationwide, you work with claims reps that are knowledgeable about your specific industry, in your specific region, and have the expertise to deal with difficult claims situations.
- Our coverage is often more comprehensive than other carriers which may result in fewer gaps and greater protection.
- We've been in the business longer than anybody. Our longevity and commitment ensures we'll be there if you have a claim.

Knowledgeable staff

- Our intensive training ensures our underwriters are experts. They'll provide the right answer to your questions. And they'll know what questions to ask to make sure you're properly insured.
- We can custom-build policies for you and properly structure them for the best protection.

We can work with any licensed broker

- Your broker can work with us, no matter what state you or your broker reside in.
